The Ghostly Times

The Ghostly Times is a website based on claims of the paranormal, whether it is Big Foot in the Pacific North West, a haunted building in a ghost town, or a UFO sighting on a secluded highway. The Ghostly Times explores stories of the unknown and offers updates on paranormal news, including personalities within the paranormal community.

Derek D. Bratton

Derek Bratton has been interested in stories of the unknown since as far back as he can remember. He started to pay attention to television shows based on the paranormal and started to question their legitimacy. In 2017 Derek lead an overnight investigation at The Washoe Club in Virginia City, Nevada. The stay still has him questioning what he experienced that night, which included disembodied voices, phantom footsteps, and a full-bodied apparition.
